Welcome to our wish list!

Global Citizen Journey (GCJ) is a small organization with big dreams. We invite you to be as inspired as we are by GCJ's potential to make a difference in our world and our lives – and to pitch in to help make it happen. Dream up your own way to participate or pick from this list of the things we wish for. If any of them have 'heart and meaning' for you, please let us know by filling out our Prospective Volunteer Form!

Join any of the following teams to get involved and help Global Citizen Journey grow!

- Home Team: Strategic planning and governance
- Volunteer Coordination Team
- Delegation Team: Help develop programs for delegates and organize journeys including delegation support and preparation; future journeys; research and harvest learning; and leadership development and training program
- Development Team: Finance; grant writing; treasury and budgeting; and fundraising
- Communications Team: Marketing and communication; community outreach and marketing; social media; PR; graphics; web; video and newsletter updates

Research and Writing

- Cross-cultural understanding, microlending, grassroots citizen diplomacy, non-violence, peace in post-conflict zones
- Background and cultural information on our journey destinations
- Websites that could link to our site (organizations compatible with our mission)
- Resources including books and articles to link

Outreach and Fundraising

- Identify and contact prospective sponsors/donors/supporters (for instance, social action chairs of religious organizations, businesses, rotary clubs, etc.)
- Identify and approach likely funders (for example, foundations or organizations such as the U.N. and USAID)
- Help plan and coordinate community events (fundraisers, hunger banquet, picnics, etc.)

Webmaster

- Enhance web functionality; periodic updates and additions to our website

Communications, Media and PR

- Develop news releases, organize radio/TV interview and other speaking opportunities
- Develop our social media capacity (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc.)
- Assist with graphic design of flyers
- Help create an annual report complete with photos
- Develop a delegates' column for the newsletter to share stories
- Develop relations with the host community or nonprofit partners
- Develop videos from our wonderful footage, photos, interviews, etc.
- Develop greeting cards from our fabulous photos

Join or Create a Delegation

If you have an idea for a destination or leads/prospective delegates for future delegations, please contact Susan Partnow, GCJ's Founder and Executive Director, at susanpartnow@gmail.com!
